PhD students will have two opportunities to present their research at the PhD Workshop:

(A) Presentation of a research paper:

Each paper will be presented by the author(s) (20 minutes).

A discussant will review the paper (5 minutes).

(B) Presentation of a PhD research proposal:

The PhD students have the opportunity to present their research in progress at the workshop in order to get feedback from peers and senior researchers.

Two sessions will be organized:

(a) early stage proposals and

(b) advanced stage proposals.

Each proposal will be presented by the author(s) (15 minutes – 5 minutes discussion).

Content of the proposal:

The proposal has to consist of the following parts:

1. Motivation of the topic; the ensuing research problem and research questions
2. Overview of the relevant literature
3. What is the gap you address in your study and why is it important to provide an answer to this research question?
4. What is the contribution of your study to the relevant literature?
5. Theory and hypotheses/research questions development
Explain the theoretical framework and develop the hypotheses/the research questions
6. Methodology
Which method do you use to answer the research questions: qualitative, quantitative, mixed methods? Is your approach deductive or inductive?
7. List of references that have been used in this paper [APA 6th style]
